MEDOT

Medot Millésime 2012

Alcohol: 12.5% vol

Acid: 7.0 g/l

Sugar: 4 g/l

Composition: 50% rebula, 30% chardonnay, 20% pinot noir

Type of wine: Sparkling wine, extra brut

Vintage: 2012

Output: 1500 bottles

Vineyard and soil: South-eastern slope of the hill below the Medot Estate in Dobrovo, terraced vineyard. The 20% of the output is produced from the old vineyard (over 35 years), using double guyot training and single guyot in younger vineyards. Vines density 4000 vines/ha, soil is marl.

Grape harvest: Manual, separated by varieties: first pinot noir after a few days chardonnay, rebula two weeks later.

Winemaking process: Immediate pressing of harvested grapes, cooling of grape must at 8°C in a stainless-steel vessel; after two days, racking and adding of selected yeasts. Fermentation, separated by varieties, at a controlled temperature of up to 16°C. Shorter ageing on fine lees, combining wines as a basis for fermentation during spring months. Fine filtering, adding of tirage liqueur and start of the secondary fermentation in the bottle in the summer.

Bottling: Bottles of 0.75 l, 6 bottles in each cardboard box; 1 to 3 magnum bottles of 1.5 l in a wooden box or 3 in a cardboard box.

Characteristics: Rich, elegant and mature sparkling wine from grapes of the excellent year 2012.

Colour: Old gold with yellow-green shades.

Aroma: Aroma of white meadow flowers develops into the aroma of orange peel and honey. It all completes with a gentle perception of toasted bread and vanilla, as a result of a long ageing on yeasts.

Flavour: The taste of dried fruit is intertwined with a slight perception of sponge cake and roasted coffee. It is full, reach with gentle bubbles and a very long ending.

Recommended dishes: With its unique complexity it can accompany almost all the best dishes of traditional and innovative cuisine.

Serving temperature: 5°C.
